Privacy Policy

Our Commitment to Privacy

They Made it...So Can I, Inc. respects the privacy of all our visitors to our website. Your privacy is a priority, and we go to great lengths to protect it. This Privacy Policy describes how we collect and use information about our online visitors. We know you care about your information and we want you to be fully informed about our practices.

This Policy may be changed or updated from time to time. By visiting They Made it...So Can I, Inc. on our websites or mobile apps, you accept the practices described in this Policy.

The Data We Collect

Our websites and mobile apps provide convenient ways for you to access our services and learn about important They Made it...So Can I, Inc. opportunities and events. We collect information about our online visitors both directly from our visitors and indirectly from other companies that provide data to us. We use this information to communicate with our supporters and clients and process their transactions. We do not sell it to other organizations.

When you use our website or app to make a financial contribution, register for special event, sign up to volunteer, we may ask you for your standard credit card information when you make a financial donation or make a purchase.

We also collect non-personal information about our online visitors using “cookies”, pixels, web and other technologies that operate automatically when you visit our website. We use this information to give our website visitors a more relevant online experience and to help us make website improvements. The information helps us understand which parts of our website or mobile app are most popular, where our online visitors are going, and how long they spend there. If you do not want us to collect information using cookies, you can disable this function in your browser. If you block cookies from us, however, you may not be able to see personalized content and our website may not function.

How We Secure Data

We use a variety of security measures to protect your data. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to help prevent unauthorized access to and improper use of personally identifiable information. We protect the security of credit card transactions using a number of measures such as encryption, access controls, network firewalls, and physical security. These measures make it extremely difficult for anyone to intercept the credit card information you send to us. When we work with other companies to process credit card transactions, those companies also use encryption and other appropriate security measures. No website or electronic data can ever be completely secure, but we are always working to maintain up to date and appropriate security measures.

How We Use Your Information

If you provide They Made It...So Can I, Inc. with personal information when you visit our websites or use our mobile app, we may use the information in our programs and activities. We may enter your information into one of our databases so we can contact you to obtain your input, provide information about our programs and events, request donations, or provide a more personalized online experience.

They Made It...So Can I, Inc. does not sell, trade, or share our donors' personal information with any other entity, except as describe below. We do not send mailings to our donors on behalf of other organizations unless the donor has given us specific permission to do so.

On occasion, They Made it...So Can I, Inc. may share your information with our vendors and other partners that help us with our activities and programs. For example, we share information with vendors that help us fulfill orders, manage data, and process donations and credit card payments. These vendors are bond by strict confidentiality rules and are permitted to use the information only to support They Made It...So Can I, Inc. We also disclose information as required by law.
